

Hippodrome's
"Movies" Win;
Music Is Good

A week ago for a little money to see a show at the Hippodrome will be added to the list of notable pictures theaters on Saturday night. An audience that passed the time unproductively, manifested ever more interest and pleasure in the screen features and musical programs.

The most popular was a film production of "The Heart of Maryland," showing Miss Leslie Carter in her role of Maryland Carter, and when she was seen swishing from the stage into the house was stirred to enthusiastic applause. The play has been presented on an elaborate scale, with the music of battle and burlesque alternating in quality. Miss Carter's vivid, forcible expression is being like fire to a burning pile of trees; her voice is revealed as a guitar or lute song later when she clashed on orchestra into the Union lines.

Among other pictures were the Vanderbilt Auto Race at the Panama Pacific Exposition, with thrilling accidents, and a decidedly amusing cartoon, "When Sammy Hits the Hay." The stage was picturequely arranged, and the tank utilized for bringing out singers in gondolas, and tableaux, "The Living Fountains," which had an excellent orchestra, while the singers included Miss Ruby Hollins, whose tenor voice is unique, to say the least.

With prices ranging from 16 to 50 cents, the Hippodrome management is more than generous in the entertainment it provides.
